

2023 City Scout Participant Application

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The Downtown Denver Partnership's inaugural City Scout Program is headed to Indianapolis, Indiana. The Program will host approximately 65 Downtown Denver project managers, mid-level professionals, and community stakeholders involved in the advancement of the 5280 Trail by experiencing, engaging with, and learning from the Indianapolis Cultural Trail - a successful multimodal trail in an urban environment that was completed in 2013.

The City Scout Program will be held from April 12-14, 2023.

If you have any questions about the program or the application process, please contact Brooke LaPlaca.

DIVERSITY COMMITMENT

Working collaboratively with our partners, the Downtown Denver Partnership implements a place-based economic development strategy to build an economically healthy, growing, and vibrant center city. As citybuilders, we are committed to creating a place where all feel a sense of belonging. The Partnership encourages engagement across cultures, respects and seeks diverse viewpoints, and works intentionally to encourage women and people of color to participate as stakeholders in our work to build this city. We are committed to supporting the Downtown Denver community and working to ensure it is a place where all feel welcome to live, work, and visit.

10. As we seek to have meaningful conversations and in order to measure our work, we have just a few demographic questions. These questions are optional, and the answers will be kept confidential.
